

AMENDMENT #2 TO RFP # 2008-100-09 *****

Please note the change to the document as originally issued. Those changes are bolded and underlined.

3.1.4 REQUIRED STAFF AND THEIR QUALIFICATIONS

Family Support Workers must possess a Bachelor's degree in the field of social work, psychology, human and child development, counseling or sociology from a college or university accredited by one of the six regional accrediting associations of the United States and a minimum of 1 year of associated experiences. Employees of established programs who were hired prior to Thursday, April 24, 2008; who possess a Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college or university; and who have a minimum of five years of experience providing human related services may be "grandfathered" in and considered for employment in this position.